

WHITE WINES

Malandrino Pinot Grigio Glass £4.50/ Bottle £17.50

Veneto, Italy — The ever popular Pinot Grigio continues to quench peoples thirst with its bone dry palate & light aromatics. The perfect summer quaffer.

Tu Meke Sauvignon Blanc Glass £5/ Bottle £20

Marlborough, New Zealand — Styled on French Sancerre, the Kiwis too Sauvignon and super charged it with enough fruit to drive your mouth wild. Without doubt, the most talked about and loved white wine style in the UK.

Picpoul Plo d'Isabelle Bottle £23.50

Picpoul de Pir, France — A surge of interest in Picpoul over the last year or so has been fuelled by the indisputable quality it offers. Something different, but something very fresh & tasty!

El Cante Albariño Bottle £25

Spain's 21st century white grape, grown on fancy pergolas in the North West region of Galicia. It has an abundance of stone fruit flavour and is growing in popularity every year.

Saint-Véran 'Les Deux Moulins' Bottle £30

Maison Louis Latour — Although less famous than its neighbour Pouilly-Fuissé, the two are similar in terms of relief, production techniques and even their actual taste/fragrance. Charming floral aromas laced with honeysuckle and on the palate round with lovely sappiness, lifted by softer muscat-like hints.

Chablis, Cape St Martin Bottle £32

Burgundy, France — No oak was harmed in the making of this Chablis, possibly why people prefer it to typical Chardonnay. Dry, elegant & mouth-watering.

Sancerre Blanc, Berthier Bottle £37

Loire Valley, France — Grown on beautiful rolling hills overlooking the Loire river; this is everything a Sauvignon fan could wish for: a mineral texture, high acidity, vibrant green fruits and a long finish.

Puligny-Montrachet, Jean-Louis Chavy Bottle £53

Burgundy, France — Intensity, complexity and elegance, it makes you wonder how such a drink could be made from mere grapes.

ROSÉ WINES

Ormillès Rosé Glass £5.50/ Bottle £22

Cotes de Prov, France — Provence is an iconic region & the spiritual home of French rosé. Beautifully light with strawberry, red cherry flavours and subtle hints of watermelon and nectarine.

Sancerre, Pinot Rosé, Lucien Crochet Bottle £29

Loire Valley, France — Made from 100% Pinot Noir, supple, poised and sophisticated. Unrivalled on a hot Summer's day.

CHAMPAGNE

Demi-Sec by Larent Perrier

Bottle £48

Laurent-Perrier is highly selective and only produces a vintage in the very best years. Whilst staying true to the House style of freshness and elegance, the Vintage also aims to show the quintessential character of the individual year. With equal parts of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, the blend is made from the most prestigious growths in Champagne and is bottle-aged in our cellars for a minimum of seven years. The result is a rich and rounded champagne with a silky finish.

Laurent Perrier Brut NV

Glass £12 / Bottle £55

While a vintage champagne shows the character of a specific harvest, a non-vintage champagne exemplifies the style of the House. Freshness and elegance, the defining qualities of the range, are showcased in the Brut L-P year after year. With 50% Chardonnay and up to 20% reserve wines to ensure consistency, this champagne is fresh and delicate with good complexity and a hint of citrus.

Laurent-Perrier Ultra Brut

Bottle £70

During the last century The House of Laurent-Perrier was known for its 'Grand Vin Sans Sucre'. This is a totally natural champagne made without the addition of the sugar dosage found in most champagnes. Now called 'Ultra Brut' this delicate champagne is still zero dosage and is essentially champagne in its purest form. Ultra Brut can only be made in years when the grapes are at optimum ripeness with a good balance of acidity and natural sugar.

RED WINES

Five Foot Track Shiraz

Glass £4.50/Bottle £17.50

Australia — The palate is spicy, juicy and mouth-filling with lashings of red berry and brambles.

Aires Andinos Malbec

Glass £7.50 Bottle £21.50

Mendoza, Argentina — Although native to France, it is thanks to Argentina that Malbec is now a seriously thrilling star in the red wine world.

Baron de Baussac Carignan Vieilles Vignes

Bottle £24

Languedoc, France — Amazingly inky and black fruit laced Carignan. Your new best friend. Once tried never forgotten.

Oltre Passo Primitivo, IGT

Bottle £24.50

Salento, Italy — Deep and dense in colour with a nose of warm prunes, dates and figs and hints of sweet spice. The palate is full, yet soft and plush with toasty notes that linger on the finish.

Rioja Selection Especial Reserva

Bottle £40

Muga Rioja, Spain — A masterclass from one of the region's top estates. The best grapes are selected for the Especial blend and aged for 6 months in large vats, before 30 months in small oak barrels and a further year in bottle.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape,

Clos de L'Oratoire des Papes

Bottle £45

Rhône Valley, France — A blend of Grenache & Syrah grapes with a big smattering of the rustic charm of the southern Rhone valley. Intense, perfumed and with sweet spices, brooding black fruits and sweet red cherries. Uncork this for the table and no one will be disappointed.

Château Batailley, Pauillac

(5ème Cru Classé) 2007

Bottle £59

Named after a 'bataille' that was fought here between the French and English (who else) 600 years ago, Batailley has once again lived up to its reputation of offering good value, early drinking, quintessential Pauillac. Made from 73% Cabernet Sauvignon, 23% Merlot, 3% Cabernet Franc and 1% Petit Verdot, its toasty, ripe plum and cedar nose leads on to a palate with vivid cassis and raspberry fruit, creamy vanilla oak and a lovely long finish. Tried, trusted and adored, Batailley has produced another sterling effort in 2007.
